

MONEYLEAGUE 2026 — Pre-Draft Snapshot

Format: 12 teams · 17-round superflex · half-PPR · 4 keepers max · 2-round penalty · 3-year consecutive cap · 11 years of history (since 2015).

KEEPER LANDSCAPE

41 players tagged as keepers in 2025 → 38 roll into 2026 at cost – 2. Three yr3 keepers hit the cap and return to the pool:

Player	Pos	2026 ADP	VBD	Last team
Brock Purdy	QB	105.8	+42.9	kylefiggy
Jordan Love	QB	126.2	+29.7	Guap's Guys

7 of 12 teams have fewer than 4 carryovers and will fill the remaining slots from waiver/undrafted players at the league's last-round cost.

KEEPER VALUE, RANKED

Top keepers (VBD vs. the player you'd otherwise get in the forfeited round):

Cost	Player	Pos	VBD	Team
R11	Puka Nacua	WR	+120.5	BergerBoy Brigade
R5	Jaxon Smith-Njigba	WR	+96.6	Barry Sandals
R6	De'Von Achane	RB	+75.9	BergerBoy Brigade
R11	Trey McBride	TE	+66.6	★★★★
R2	Brock Bowers	TE	+63.2	★★★★
R11	Chase Brown	RB	+59.7	I Herald LEMVP
R4	Nico Collins	WR	+59.5	BergerBoy Brigade
R7	Drake Maye	QB	+58.8	TBreswick

Team keeper-value totals (sum of VBD across kept players):

Team	Keepers	VBD total
★★★★	4	+191.0
Barry Sandals	4	+128.0
TBreswick	2	+60.0
Unicorn Poo	4	+39.9
BergerBoy Brigade ★★★★★	4	+37.8
she Tuten on my Bhayshul	3	+27.8
Wi1dboy	3	–13.6
I Herald LEMVP	3	–34.5
Chester A. Arthur	2	–86.5
Trez Bridges & Co.	4	–110.8
Guap's Guys	2	–149.3
kylefiggy	3	–251.3

★★★★ enters the draft with a +191 VBD head start and the league's two best TEs. kylefiggy is upside-down: Justin Fields, JJ McCarthy, and Tucker Kraft all project below replacement for their forfeit rounds.

TRADE ACTIVITY (2026 PICKS)

20 traded picks on file; 18 net moves after round-trips. Four teams sat out: Trez Bridges, she Tuten on my Bhayshul, Barry Sandals, Guap's Guys.

Team	Gained	Lost
kylefiggy	+R1, R1, R2, R4	R4, R8, R13, R14
Chester A. Arthur	+R1, R3	R13, R14
Unicorn Poo	+R14, R14, R15	R1, R2, R4
BergerBoy Brigade	+R4, R8, R13	R1, R2, R4
TBreswick	+R13, R14	R1, R3
I Herald LEMVP	+R2, R4	R14, R15
★★★★	+R2	R17
Wi1dboy	+R17	R2

Notable: kylefiggy now owns three R1 picks (after their keeper pile already costs them R8, R9, R10) — they're trying to rebuild around fresh elite talent while shedding their underperforming yr1-yr2 keeper stack. TBreswick gave up their R1 and R3 for a pair of mid-teens — either an extreme punt or signal of confidence in their two top-30 keepers (Drake Maye, Ricky Pearsall).

11-YEAR PATTERNS

Per-position retention (1st-year → 2nd-year keeper):

Pos	Yr1 → Yr2	Yr2 → Yr3	Total cap hits (11 yrs)
QB	31% (n=16)	38% (n=8)	3
RB	29% (n=21)	11% (n=9)	3
WR	33% (n=27)	18% (n=17)	7
TE	25% (n=12)	0% (n=3)	2

QBs are the position most likely to be kept all three years in a row. TEs never get held to yr3 — by then the round penalty is too painful for the position. WRs hit the cap most often (7 times), which tracks: long careers, predictable production, easier to project a third year of value.

League activity, year by year:

The league averaged ~30 keepers/year recently (max 41 in 2025, the most in its history). Anomalies: 2020 had only 4 keepers (COVID-shortened prep?), 2023 had zero (rule reset?). Engagement is at an all-time high heading into 2026.

Most-kept players ever: Deshaun Watson (5 different years), then a cluster at 3 years including Kittle, Mayfield, Tyreek Hill, Davante Adams, Mike Evans — the WR longevity pattern shows up clearly.

WHAT TO EXPECT ON DRAFT DAY

- Round 1 board after keepers: Bijan Robinson, Jahmyr Gibbs, Ja'Marr Chase, Christian McCaffrey, Jonathan Taylor lead the available pool — the elite WR/TE keepers (Bowers, JSN, Nico, Puka, Achane) won't be there.
- QB cliff: With 3 forced-drop QBs back in the pool (Purdy, Love, Geno) and history saying 38% of yr2 QB keepers get held to yr3, expect QBs to fly early — superflex magnifies this.
- TE scarcity: Bowers, Kittle, McBride, Kraft, LaPorta, Ferguson, Hunter Henry, Jonnu Smith all kept. Only Sam LaPorta-class options remain after R5.
- kylefiggy and Chester each enter R1 with 3 and 2 picks respectively; Unicorn Poo, BergerBoy, and TBreswick have zero R1 picks. ADP at the top of the board is going to swing hard with whoever wins those acquired slots — and 2026 draft slot assignments haven't been drawn yet, so the exact pick order is TBD.
